

Artist Development - Spring Term 2020

Megan Hann - Expectations (Lauren Jauregui)

Vocademy

Up in bed, all alone
Wondering where you've been Ten past three
I know the club closed at two A.M
I've already been through about seven scenarios 'bout what it was that changed your mind
Knowing very well that you told me you'd come home, and it happens every time

Wish I had no expectations
I wish that I could get it through your head
With no confrontation
I really wish we could talk about it instead
All these tears that I cry while I'm turned to the side
And you're in the same bed
Wish I had no expectations
But I expect, you expect, we expect

No, I don't mean to pry
I don't need no play by play
All I need from your side is for you to communicate
(ah-ah-ah-ah) Respect for my time, respect for my space
Respect for my energy
'Cause I've been waiting here all night for you to warm me up
And you haven't once thought of me

Wish I had no (oh-oh-oh-oh) expectations
I wish that I could get it through your head
With no confrontation
I really wish we could talk about it instead
All these tears that I cry while I'm turned to the side
And you're in the same bed
Wish I had no expectations
But I expect, you expect, we expect

INSTRUMENTAL

Oh, I wish I had no expectations
I wish I could get through your head

Artist Development - Spring Term 2020

With no confrontation (confrontation)

I really wish we could talk about it instead

All these tears that I cry while I'm turned to the side

And you're in the same bed

Wish I had no expectations

But I expect, you expect, we expect